

his House, and shall inquire what Goods he hath, and what Corn he hath in his Graunge; and, if he be a Freeman, they shall inquire how much Land he hath, and what it is worth yearly; and further, what Corn he hath upon the Ground.

(9) And when they have thus inquired upon every thing, they shall cause all the Land, Corn, and Goods to be valued, in like manner as if they should be sold incontinently, and thereupon they shall be delivered to the whole Township, which shall be answerable before the Justices for all; (10) and likewise of his Freehold, how much it is worth yearly over and above the Service due to the Lords of the Fee; and the Land shall remain in the King's hands, until the Lords of the Fee have made Fine for it. (11) And immediately, upon these things being inquired, the Bodies of such Persons being dead or slain shall be buried.

II. In like manner it is to be inquired of them that be drowned, or suddenly dead, and after such Bodies are to be seen, whether they were so drowned, or slain, or strangled by the sign of a Cord tyed streight about their Necks, or about any of their Members, or upon any other Hurt found upon their Bodies, whereupon que blada in grangia; & si liber homo fuerit, quantam terram habuerit, & quantum valeat per annum, sive que blada habuerit, habeat in terris; & cum ita adquisierit de omnibus, appreciari faciat catalla & 68 blada, & extendat terram, sicut statim vendi possent, & liberentur villatis ad respondend' coram justiciariis; similiter de terra libera, quantum valeat per annum, salvo servicio dominorum feodi, & teneant terram in manum domini regis, quousque domini feodorum per eadem finem fecit.
